Our speaker will be James Brennan KP '73 Partner, Norbridge, Inc. Topic: Looking Ahead in The Maritime Market.

About James Brennan:

James R. Brennan, a Partner at Norbridge, Inc., heads up the firm's Washington, DC office, and specializes in consulting to maritime shipping companies and ports.

Mr. Brennan has over 26 years of transportation industry and consulting experience, conducting strategy, marketing, operational, organizational, and competitive assignments on behalf of container and bulk shipping companies, port authorities, terminal operators, railroads and industry trade and labor organizations.

Examples of his assignments include:

- Evaluating the feasibility of a new Asia-North America shipping service concept for one of the largest global container shipping lines.
- Providing due diligence support to several private equity investors interested in port terminal operators. Several assignments have led to successful acquisitions.
- Assisting a North American port authority to evaluate its financial performance by line-of-business and by individual customer.
- Assisting a consortia of bulk terminal operators evaluate the benefits of, and options for, combining their marine bulk terminal operations.
- Evaluating the commercial and financial feasibility of a multi-user intermodal and industrial hub.

In recent years, Mr. Brennan has been increasingly involved in assisting governments, port authorities, and private investors in privatizing port facilities throughout Latin America. Mr. Brennan has conducted privatization assignments in Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Mexico, and Peru.

Prior to joining Norbridge, Mr. Brennan was a Principal at Mercer Management Consulting (now Oliver Wyman), where he was responsible for directing its port and intermodal rail practices. Prior to joining Mercer, he sailed as a licensed deck officer aboard tankers and tugs for Sun Transport Company.

Mr. Brennan holds a Masters Degree in Business Administration from the Pennsylvania State University and a Bachelors Degree in Marine Transportation (1973) from the United States Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point.
